

“MUSIC LESSONS”

BIL MOONEY-MCCOY

Concerning My Relationship to God

1. My identity must be in God and God alone. Nothing else. (1st commandment) Exodus. 20:3

📖 Is my “ministry” becoming more important than my friendship with God?

📖 Am I gaining identity in what I can do rather than who I am in Him?

2. God is not a critic; He’s my Daddy. Matthew 18:3

📖 Am I being limited and oppressed by perfectionism?

📖 Do I really know that my Father delights in what I do and wants me to enjoy it?

Concerning My Understanding of My Gifts

3. I am to be the best ME in the world. I Corinthians. 12:18-20

📖 Do I anxiously compare myself to others?

📖 Am I learning who I am uniquely called to be and am I at peace with that?

4. Bring God into every detail of my life, including artistic development. Philippians. 4: 6

📖 Do I ask God to grow me in specific ways?

📖 Do I bring Him into the very details of my life?

Concerning My Practice of Ministry

5. Look for God’s plan. I Samuel 23:1-2; Judges 7:4; Genesis 22:13

📖 Do I stop and listen to make sure I’m in sync with Him in as I do what I do?

📖 Am I so vested in doing things the way I feel most comfortable that I’m afraid to try something new?

6. The only important music I make is touching lives (Music is the excuse for ministry).
Matthew 22:39

📖 Have I let the output of ministry take priority over loving those under my leadership?

📖 Do I pay attention to the process as much as I do to the product?
